7. DATE, PLACE AND PROCEDURE FOR CLOSING.

(a) Unless in writing otherwise agreed by the parties hereto, this transaction shall be finally closed in the offices of Euler Law Offices, LLC, 137 S. Main, Troy, Kansas 66087, on or before April 4, 2023, at 10:00 o'clock A.M.

8. CLOSING COSTS.

(a) The parties shall share equally the closing costs incurred in connection with attorneys' fees incurred in closing this real estate transaction.

(b) SELLER shall be responsible for any attorneys' fees incurred in connection with drafting the necessary documents to this real estate transaction, including, but not limited to, preparing this Contract for Sale of Real Estate and preparing a Warranty Deed of Conveyance, IRS 1099, Validation Questionnaire, and the costs associated with the initial title search.

(c) Costs of recording such instruments as are necessary to provide marketable title shall be borne by SELLER and the costs of recording all other instruments, including the deed to BUYER, shall be the responsibility of the BUYER.

(d) The parties shall share equally the costs associated with the Owners Policy of Title Insurance, and costs of recording such instruments as are necessary to provide marketable title shall be borne by SELLERS.

(e) BUYER shall be responsible for the costs of recording all other instruments, including the deed to BUYER, as well as the costs incurred associated with the Mortgage Policy of Title Insurance after the final closing of this transaction.

9. CONDITION OF PREMISES; STATUTORY WARNINGS; POTABLE WATER.

(a) SELLER herein makes no warranties or guarantees as to the condition of said real estate and BUYER agrees that they have had ample opportunity to inspect the premises and that they will accept possession of the property in "as is" condition. Said condition including any and all known and unknown defects existing on the premises or any hidden defects which may arise at some later point in time.

(b) Pursuant to Kansas Statute every BUYER of residential real property is notified that the property may present exposure to dangerous concentrations of indoor radon gas that may place occupants at risk of developing radon-induced lung cancer. Radon, a class-A human carcinogen, is the leading cause of lung cancer in non-smokers and the second leading cause overall. Kansas law requires sellers to disclose any information known to the SELLER that shows elevated concentrations of radon gas in residential real property. The Kansas department of health and environment recommends all home-buyers have an indoor radon test performed prior to purchasing or taking occupancy of residential real property. All testing for radon should be conducted by a radon measurement technician. Elevated radon concentrations can be easily reduced by a radon mitigation technician. For more information go to www.kansasradonprogram.org.

(c) Every purchaser of any interest in residential real property on which a residential dwelling was built prior to 1978 is notified that such property may present exposure to lead from lead-based paint that may place young children at risk of developing lead poisoning. Lead poisoning in young children may produce permanent neurological damage, including learning disabilities, reduced intelligence quotient, behavioral problems, and impaired memory. Lead poisoning also poses a particular risk to pregnant women. The SELLER of any interest in residential real property is required to provide the BUYER with any information on lead-based paint hazards from risk assessments or inspections in the SELLER'S possession and notify the buyer of any known lead-based paint hazards. A risk assessment or inspection for possible lead-based paint hazards is recommended prior to purchase.

(d) Kansas law requires individuals who are convicted of certain sexually violent crimes, to register with the Sheriff of the county in which they reside. If you desire information regarding those registrants, you may find information on the homepage of the Kansas Bureau of Investigation (KBI) at <http://www.kansas.gov/kbi> or by contacting the local sheriff's office.

10. LIQUIDATED DAMAGES.

(a) Time is of the essence of this Contract and SELLER'S damages in the event of breach or default by BUYER are difficult to specifically ascertain; therefore, in the event that BUYER shall fail or refuse to close this transaction at the time and in the manner hereinbefore provided, then SELLER shall have the right and option, by reason of such failure, to declare this Contract null and void and of no further force or effect, in which event, SELLER shall retain the down payment made hereunder as liquidated damages for BUYER'S breach of this Agreement and, in the event of such occurrence, BUYER shall immediately and voluntarily vacate and surrender up full and complete possession of the above-described premises to SELLER and shall have no claim against SELLER for any improvements or expenditures made or farming work completed by BUYER on the premises under and pursuant to the rights and authority granted BUYER pursuant to this Contract.

(b) Pursuant to K.S.A. 58-3061(h), notwithstanding any other terms of this contract providing for forfeiture or refund of the earnest money deposit, the parties understand that applicable Kansas real estate law prohibits the escrow agent from distributing the earnest money, once deposited, without the consent of all parties of this agreement. The BUYER and SELLER agree that failure by either to respond in writing to a certified letter from the holder of the earnest money within seven (7) days of the receipt or failure to make written demand for return or forfeiture of any earnest money deposited within thirty (30) days of notice of cancellation of this agreement shall constitute consent to the distribution of the earnest money as suggested in any such certified letter or as demand by the other parties. Such notice shall be mailed to SELLER and BUYER at the addresses shown below their respective signatures unless the escrow agent is provided with written notice of a change of address.

11. BINDER AND NONMERGER.

(a) The terms and provisions hereof shall extend to and bind the heirs, devisees, and assigns of all parties hereto, PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that BUYER shall not assign any of the BUYER'S rights and interests under this Contract to any third person whomsoever without first securing SELLER'S written consent to any such assignment.

(b) All covenants and agreements herein made by the parties, each to the other, shall survive the final closing of this transaction and shall continue to be and remain binding, enforceable and in full force and effect after the final closing of the transaction and none of such covenants and agreements shall be considered as having been extinguished by reason of the merger thereof into the final closing of this transaction or the Deed of Conveyance to be delivered by the SELLER to the BUYER as a part of such final closing.

12. EXECUTION OF AGREEMENT; ELECTRONIC SIGNATURE.

(a) This agreement may be executed simultaneously in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

(b) The signatures on this agreement or counterparts thereto may be rendered or exchanged by facsimile or electronic transmission, and signatures so rendered or exchanged by the parties shall be construed as original signatures to this agreement.
